SAM JONES is in Missouri once more. He made a rattling address at Mason yesterday is favor of probibition, and the Globe Democrat presents it in full The Democrats of the State are terrible afraid of Jones as a prohibition lecturer, and they have very good reason to be. Democracy can't stand up under a cross-fire from religion on one side and temperance on the other, -Globe-Democrat.

You do not put it right. You do not put it right, because you put it from a solely partisan standpoint. United, the Democrats in Missouri do not fear anything. Neither the world, the flesh, nor the devil. Neither Prohibition, the Cutribes of the Rev.
